

Which are the top 10 (most rented) family-friendly films?

The top two films, Scalawag Duck and Juggler Hardly, have the same rental count as are the next six films which share the same count but lesser than that of the top 2.

All top ten films have been rented at least 30 times.

What is the distribution of films within family-friendly categories as per rental duration?

There's no clear-cut trend across categories.

However, short-duration animation films have the highest count followed by category 3 family movies.

How have the stores performed in terms of monthly rental orders?

Both stores have had similar monthly performance with August 2005 having the highest rentals.

Who are our top 10 paying customers and what are their monthly payments like?

We can clearly see the distribution of monthly payments by our top 10 clients.

The highest monthly payment was made by Eleanor Hunt.